

Suite No.6

Lord Strathcona's Morning Room.

Suite Overview

Suite No. 6 is a one bedroom suite that has the advantage of facing the Pap of Glencoe mountain and contains a master bedroom with separate dressing room, a generously sized sitting room and large bathroom.

The Sitting Room

One of the key defining features of Glencoe House's elegant accommodation is your personal private sitting room, which creates the ultimate retreat and hideaway. Suite No.6's sitting room is 42 square metres. Its unique period features have been preserved which gives a feeling of grandeur. The room contains an impressive original open fireplace, which can be lit to give a warm glow of an afternoon or in the evening while enjoying a drink from the generously stocked "maxi" bar in your antique sideboard. Other period features include window shutters and ornate ceiling.

Breakfast is a relaxed affair, which is served at a time of your pleasing at your personal, full-sized dining table in the sitting room, which can be enjoyed while admiring the spectacular view and contemplating the day's activities together with your choice of daily newspapers.

The Bedroom

The bedroom of this suite is generously sized in itself but it also has the dream feature of having an adjoining dressing room. This room contains an antique dressing table, wardrobe and is an ideal place to store your holiday shoe collection. The "Glencoe House Rejuvenating Bed Concept" allows for a restful and restoring night's sleep; the 300 count Egyptian cotton is just one of the little luxuries. We offer a turndown service that includes closing the window shutters and a hot water bottle to warm the bed if desired.

The Bathroom

The bathroom takes all needs into account whether you favour sipping champagne in the free standing slipper bath overlooking the Pap of Glencoe or enjoying the "Glencoe House Energising Shower Concept". The room is 10 sqm / 108 ft<sup>2</sup> and also boasts 'his' and 'hers' wash hand basins for that individual touch.
